Welcome!

Many moons ago, back when it wasn't clear if in-person performances would even be possible at this time, we were honored to be invited by the Pompano Beach Cultural Center to put together this concert along with the Florida Singing Sons. Collaboration amongst arts organizations is key to maintaining a vibrant local arts community. The Girl Choir of South Florida is elated to be a part of the unique culture of Broward by celebrating and investing in the artistry of our young musicians.

Hearing the Girl Choir of South Florida & the Florida Singing Sons unite in song is a truly special experience. These choristers have trained extensively to be able to capture the essence of a piece & express themselves musically. We are thrilled to present this glimpse into the hard work of both organizations as we continue on our mission of "transforming girls' lives through musical excellence."

*Letter to those at home
I wish blessings and peace upon my home
I wish my house, my father, my mother,
To please remember me.
When I left my parents' house,
My famous little village, my beautiful Hungarian homeland,
Then sadness settled on my heart.
I wish that God will bless you,
Protect us and all we have,
Keep sadness from our hearts,
Never allow my nation to face any tragedy.*

*Thou art the joy of all joyous things,
Thou art the light of the beam of the sun,
Thou art the door of the chief of hospitality,
Thou art the surpassing star of guidance,

Thou art the grace of the swan of swimming,
Thou art the loveliness of all lovely desires.*
